

Meet African Port Security Leaders

USTDA invites U.S. companies to meet with port authorities, government officials, and other decision makers representing African ports to establish relationships and learn about opportunities in current and planned development projects.

DATE September 16, 2026

TIME 9am - 4pm EDT

PLACE Arlington, VA

Background

Sub-Saharan Africa is home to global supply chain hubs that handle substantial cargo volumes, and the sector is primed for modernization to improve cargo handling efficiencies and port security. Senior officials and technical decision-makers will provide real-time intelligence on plans for port development, upcoming procurements, regulatory and policy developments, and financing needs. This event will directly connect U.S. companies with the right partners to facilitate deals. Countries participating include Angola, Kenya, Nigeria and Senegal.
