

Medical Innovations Forum: Aligning Regulations for Market Access

USTDA invites U.S. companies and industry professionals from Latin America and the Caribbean to strengthen collaboration with government leaders on modern, efficient regulatory approaches for pharmaceuticals and medical devices.

DATE July 28-29, 2026

TIME 9am-5pm CST

PLACE San José, Costa Rica

Background

Capitalizing on new pharmaceuticals and medical devices that are improving patient outcomes and driving economic growth requires a dynamic and harmonized regulatory environment. This Forum will bring together business leaders, policymakers, and other experts to discuss regulatory best practices for pharmaceuticals and medical devices, including the use of AI and digital tools for efficiency, transparency, and timely market access. Through real-world case studies and discussion, participants will explore international challenges and approaches to address them.
